What People are Saying...

At the time I contacted Erik, I was at a plateau stage in my career. I had set a goal of earning a promotion, but needed the guidance of a coach to reach that level. Erik has been instrumental as a mentor invoking thoughtful soul-searching and guidance; however, what Erik provided was far more than coaching. He held me accountable to the steps necessary for success, while simultaneously empowering me to reflect and enhance my leadership skills. I believe these attributes have had a positive impact on my contributions to my team, peers, and employer. Erik has not only helped me to accomplish my goal, but has supported my vision for much greater accomplishments – personally and professionally. Erik assists me to approach each situation with a holistic and strategic view as I strive to be a GREAT leader. Think GREAT coaching...is GREAT!
