Drive Your Sales RESULTS

Sales vehicles are not intended to remain stuck in the parking lot of mediocrity. If you are ready to drive sales to new levels, you must build the high-performance sales engine required to accelerate your sales vehicle and achieve sustainable success. From the pages of Erik Therwanger's acclaimed book, Dynamic Sales Combustion: Create the Engine for Transformational Sales Results, learn how to master The Four Cycles of Dynamic Sales Combustion and drive your sales results.

Unbreakable MINDSET - You and your sales team will learn how to harness the power of their thoughts and convert them into transformational results. Your Sales Engine focuses on fine-tuning existing perceptions about selling, adding new dimensions to your sales efforts, and establishing the primary role of every salesperson – being a leader.

Unparalleled DATA - Successful sales professionals understand how to gather, track, and utilize information. With a focus on accountability, you will develop a system for identifying the Discovery Info needed to understand your clients, the Action Info required to know your competition, and the Tactical Info necessary to provide relevant solutions.

Unstoppable GEARS - By mastering the Five Sales Gears, your team will create non-stop combustion. Your sales engine will Achieve Ignition as you enhance your prospecting and contacting skills. You will Create Momentum as you turn your presenting and set-up gears. You will then Develop Velocity as you create your unique follow-up toolbox.

Unmatched STRUCTURE - Getting your Sales Engine firing is critical, but holding it all together, for sustainable growth and predictable success, is paramount. Keep your Sales Vehicle moving in the right direction by learning the techniques to creating Your Plan, the strategies to maximizing Your Schedule, and the proven concepts to enhancing Your Environment.

"A strong leader will do more with a weak plan, than a weak leader will ever do with a strong plan."

~ Erik Therwanger

Sales Driving SCHOOL

SALES DIAGNOSTICS™ - Engine Analysis

Using our Sales Inspection Checklist and Combustion Assessment, your team is introduced to the essentials of the Sales Impact System (SIS®), ensuring that everyone is unified and prepared for Sales Driving School. Focus is steered toward identifying strengths and weaknesses.

DRIVING COURSE 1™ - Data and Accountability

This powerful session allows Sales Drivers to clearly identify the priority data required for accomplishing their sales goals. Discovery Info, Action Info, and Tactical Info is used to better understand your clients, rivals, and solutions. Accountability ties everything together.

DRIVING COURSE 2™ - Ignition, Momentum, and Velocity

This dynamic session focuses on the Five Sales Gears: Prospecting, Contacting, Presenting, Set-Up, and Follow-Up. With detailed attention given to each gear, Sales Drivers will develop a Follow-Up Toolbox to keep their engines revving and achieve predictable and profitable growth.

DRIVING COURSE 3™ - Planning and Scheduling

This game-changing session establishes the structure required to build and maintain a high-performance sales environment. Your Plan details the strategy required for long-term victories. Your Schedule allows your team to control, and block out, the time periods required for success.

SALES LAUNCH™ - Environment Review

Your Sales Engine is firing on all cylinders, your sales vehicle is positioned for success, and the pedal is pushed to the metal. Drive sales to new levels of success by creating Ambassadors who generate non-stop referrals. Use Referral Tracking System™ to open new opportunities.

Achieving Consistent Acceleration

QUARTERLY BRIEFINGS – Pit-Stop Inspection™

Sales Drivers re-group after each 90-Day Race to assess the performance of their sales engines and the transformational results, focusing on duplicating successes and eliminating issues. Sales Drivers are recognized in the Winner's Circle for completing successful Sales Races.

ANNUAL BRIEFINGS - Sales Plan™

Sales Drivers re-visit the entire Sales Plan to identify any significant course corrections required for long-term growth and high-levels of Sales Combustion. Adjustments to performance and results are key focal points.
